

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction 1

Part I Analyzing the Case

Chapter 1. Jeffrey's Death	4
Detecting conflict	6
Identifying legally significant conflicts	8
Chapter 2. Building the Case	11
Facts	12
Inferences	14
What makes lawyers think?	17
Inferences about another's mental state	23
Chapter 3. Finding Fault	28
The source of legal norms	30
Principles of law	32
The rule of law	33
Spotting a question for the jury	36
Attacking the rule of law	38
Where do principles of law come from?	39
The source of law	41
Fairness	43
Where does Jeffrey's case stand?	46
Chapter 4. Finding a Defendant	48
Did Margaret "cause" Jeffrey's death?	50
A mother's duty to her child	53
The doctrine of intrafamily immunity	54
Reasoning from precedent	56
The response of law to change	59
Should Jeffrey sue Margaret?	62
Chapter 5. Pursuing a Defendant	64
Using law as a guide	65
Spotting the issue	67
Pursuing the issues	72
The contingencies in legal reasoning	74
Doesn't the thief's wrong erase Timothy's wrong?	76
The effect of an ordinance	78
Positive law and organic law	80
The antinomy between law and justice	82
Chapter 6. Deciding Whether to Take the Case	85
Who would our client be?	85
Putting a dollar value on Jeffrey's life	87
Discounting for the probability of failure	90
Testing this assessment against experience	93
Finding the deep pocket	96
Should we take the case?	98

Part II Explaining Our Analysis

Chapter 7. The Control System Model	101
Understanding thermostats	104
Making lemonade	107
Getting along with others	112
Chapter 8. The Pursuit of the Good	116
The role of personal values	116
Thinking and feeling	118
The hierarchy of purposes	121
Positive law	125
Chapter 9. Constraints Upon Action	129
Doing the right thing	130
Why follow norms?	134
The social dynamics of normative evaluation	137
Chapter 10. A Model of Legal Thought	141
An overview of the model	142
Descriptive thinking	146
1. Perceiving facts	147
2. Assessing facts	151
Parallel thought	158
3. Gathering facts	161
Was the car actually stolen?	165
Normative thinking	166
1. Perceiving law	168
2. Assessing law	170
The sense of justice	173
3. Discovering law	177
Action thinking	178
1. Perceiving potential actions	181
2. Evaluating potential actions	182
3. Taking action	185
Legal thinking as a whole	186
Senses	189
Chapter 11. What Makes Law Organic?	194